98 Student Actors to Perform Roald Dahl's Willy Wonka, Junior

The Eternity Players' production of Willy Wonka, Junior will fill the stage with 98 student actors, tons of candy sweets, musical treats and chocolate galore on November 14 & 15 at 7:00PM, with a Sunday matinee at 2:30PM on November 16. All performances are held at Greater Harrisburg Youth for Christ, 1000 South Eisenhower Boulevard, ¼ mile north of the Turnpike Administration Building. $7-9 Reserved Seating tickets are now available online at www.EternityPlayers.org or by calling (717) 939-9333.

Specially adapted from Roald Dahl's beloved book and flavored by the subsequent movies, this musical includes all your favorite characters – Willy Wonka, Augustus Gloop, Violet Beauregarde, Veruca Salt, Mike Teavee, and of course Charlie Bucket. You'll sing along to the famous "Oompa Loompa" song and new songs like, "I Want More", "Chew It!", and "Golden Age of Chocolate". Appealing to all the senses, Willy Wonka, Junior is sure to be a crowd-pleaser for audiences of all ages!

Under the direction of George Kell, a cast of nearly 100 3rd through 9th grade students fill the stage with boundless energy and talent. Carina Bolton, a gifted teacher at East Pennsboro, keeps the Oompa Loompas bouncing as Choreographer. Kate Bright, a resident of Middletown and elementary school music teacher in the York school district, has the cast vocally up and running as Musical Director.

Youth for Christ, the parent organization of The Eternity Players' ministry, is an intra-denominational, para-church outreach to the students and young adults of the mid-state. The Eternity Players present 4-5 major theatrical productions a year, and pride themselves on the high level of training they offer to students of the greater Harrisburg area.
